Pastor's Paragraph

Dear Church Family,

Seeing how it is the beginning of a new UT football season, I thought I would show you how the church has much in common with football. Check these out:

Quarterback Sneak – Church members quietly leaving during the invitation

Draw Play - what many children do with the bulletin during worship

Halftime - the period between Sunday School and worship when many choose to leave

Benchwarmer - those who do not sing, pray, work, or do anything else but sit, soak and sour

Backfield-in-motion - making a trip to the back (restroom or water fountain) during the service

Staying in the pocket - what happens to a lot of money that should be given to the Lord's work

Two-minute warning - the point at which you realize the sermon is almost over and begin to gather up your children and belongings

Instant replay - the preacher loses his notes and falls back on last week's illustrations

Sudden death - what happens to the attention span of the congregation if the preacher goes "overtime"

Trap - you're called on to pray and are asleep

End run - getting out of church quickly, without speaking to any guest or fellow member

Flex defense - the ability to allow absolutely nothing said during the sermon to affect your life

Halfback option - the decision of 50% of the congregation not to return for the evening service

Blitz - the rush for the restaurants following the closing prayer

I hope this serves as a humorous reminder that God deserves that which is right, and not simply what's left. Come prepared to offer Him your very best this Sunday.

Todd

Music

It's football time in Tennessee!!!!!!
GO VOLS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Things are beginning to get a little hectic in the music department at Grace as we prepare for the upcoming "busy" season with Homecoming, Thanksgiving and Christmas rapidly approaching. If you happen to be hanging around church from 4:30 – 6:00 on Sunday afternoons, try to overlook the verbal jabs from the ding-a-lings at the handbell director (expletives deleted) as they are learning new music for the special events. Choir practice still happens on Wednesdays at 7:30 if you care to join us (Dare Ya!!!)

August has five Sundays, so guess what? It's time for a fifth Sunday night sing and fellowship. Everyone is invited to participate and we are anxiously looking forward to what God has in store for us this Sunday evening.

Special thanks to Brother Ben Richter for his amazing piano mini-concert a couple of weeks ago. God has richly blessed him with musical talent and we are blessed to have him and his wife in our congregation.

That's all folks!

In Christ,
Mike
